

TOPICS & SPEAKERS

SENIOR EXECUTIVE FIRE OFFICER STRATEGIC PLANNING SEMINAR

1. W. BILL STEWART, FIRE CHIEF – TORONTO FIRE SERVICE
 - a. High Rise Residential Fires – Things shouldn't go wrong do go wrong! – On a cold winter morning Chief Stewart was Incident Commander where six residents perished
 - b. Wind Driven High Rise Fires – Do we have the right tactics? –A report of lessons learned from the New York High Rise fire study on one of the most dangerous fires that a fire service faces.
2. CLARK ESLER, SUNCOR ENERGY FIRE CHIEF, JEFF CARLYSLE, VERNON FIRE CHIEF
 - a. Alberta Oil Sand firefighting, health, safety and emergency response - a look from within a 300,000 bbl per day oil sands producer and how they cooperate regionally.
 - b. Alberta Oil Sand firefighting, health, safety and emergency response – a look from the Regional District protecting and cooperating with three major oil sands producer and a number of minor producers.
3. ENG. WADDAH S. GHANEM, GROUP EHSQ COMPLIANCE MANAGER
 - a. Effective Emergency Response Planning: Planning & Executing Effective Drills in Oil Storage Installations – Case Study
4. WARREN LEONARD, MANAGER, TORONTO OFFICE OF EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT
 - a. Emergency Management in Toronto – An examination of the structure and application of the offices responsibilities through two case studies.
5. DOUG SILVER, DIVISION CHIEF, TORONTO FIRE SERVICES
 - a. Career Competency – a review of the cities Fire Department hiring, training and promotion system
 - b. Special Operations Training Centre – mini presentation followed by a demonstration and review of a variety of apparatus & equipments including: high rise unit, hazardous materials unit, heavy rescue squad, air/light unit, pumper, rescue pumper, platforms and ladders.
6. SEAN TRACEY, CANADIAN REGIONAL MANAGER, NFPA
 - a. Macro to Micro – Emergency Management, Industrial Fire Brigades and Civil Defence fire services all have something in common, a system of well thought out consensus standards that will assist the Senior Executive.
7. FRED LEBER, CEO, LEBER-RUBES FIRE ENGINEERS
 - a. PLANS, PLANS, PLANS – What does it all mean? An exploration of the commonalities and differences between Fire Safety Plans, Pre Fire Plans, and Emergency Management Plans.
8. ROCCO MERAGLIA, HEALTH, SAFETY & ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGER, SNC- LAVALIN
 - a. Emergency Response Team Development – Based on the four pillars of Effective Training, Resource Management, Site Emergency Response Action Plan and Development of site specific emergency response standard operating procedures.
9. MIKE FIGLIOLA, FIRE CHIEF, GREATER TORONTO AIRPORT AUTHORITY
DWAYNE MACINTOSH, DEPUTY CHIEF, GREATER TORONTO AIRPORT AUTHORITY
 - a. Accidents Happen - A review of the Air France incident at Greater Toronto Airport, everybody lived but the Airbus A340 was destroyed. How these airport firefighters prepared beforehand, what happened during the incident and what changes have they made in their training and operations as a result of the accident